

The Fresnillan Sun

Spring 2001

Issue 1, Volume 2

Hello friends! This superb publication used to be called "Crecimiento," but I felt that it needed a little more focus, so I changed the title. I hope that you are doing well and counting your blessings, giving thanks to him who gives so freely to us. I am learning that I need to be more thankful.

Well, about six months has passed since I wrote you all, and I wanted to update you on what is going on in my life. I no longer work for Motorola, as many of you know, but I am working for Tyndale House Publishers in Wheaton, IL. I have been there for about two months. The job is very monotonous at times, but has its moments. For me, it's the people that really make the job worth it, and I work with a great bunch of guys in the warehouse!

I have been able to talk to many of you upon returning from the year I spent in Fresnillo, Mexico with Christ for Children, International. I have been able to share many stories about what God is doing, and how I was privileged to be a part of it. I sensed back in the spring of 1999 that God was calling me to CFCI, and I took a step of faith in following and obeying him. Since being back, these last ten months have been a real struggle for me, as I have discovered quite clearly that though I left CFCI in body, I did not leave in heart.

My heart in many ways still longs to be with the children with whom I spent that year. God has shown me the value of those children and people in his eyes and has placed their burden upon my heart. He loves them and so do I!

In writing this letter, I want to invite you to prayerfully consider whether God would be leading you to support me once again in sharing in his burden for the people in Fresnillo. I want to return to the place I left a few short months ago.

In seeking God's direction concerning a return to Fresnillo, I am asking you to pray and consider whether God is leading you to support me financially. Please respond, no matter what your decision, by filling out the enclosed response form, and send it (no contributions at this time please) in the self-addressed, postage-paid envelope to me at this address:

I would love to talk to you more in person, but obviously this is the best way for me to communicate with you. I would love to hear from you regardless of your decision to support me with CFCI, so feel free to drop a line on email, letter, or phone call. My phone number is 630-221-9405. I am usually home in the evenings.

Know that I love you and long to see you all. I look forward to hearing from you, and please update me on what's going on in your lives.

With sincere love in Christ,
